

1
2
3
4
5
6
7
8 IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
910 FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA
1112 THOMAS FERNANDEZ, LORA SMITH, and 13 TOSHA THOMAS, individually and on behalf of a class of all other persons similarly situated,

No. C 06-7339 CW

14 Plaintiffs,

ORDER GRANTING
PLAINTIFFS' MOTION FOR EXTENSION OF
PAGE LIMIT, AS MODIFIED (Docket
No. 151)15 v.
16 K-M INDUSTRIES HOLDING CO., INC., et
17 al.,18 Defendants.
1920 Plaintiffs Thomas Fernandez, Lora Smith and Tosha Thomas have 21 moved for an extension of the page limits for their briefs in
22 opposition to the three groups of Defendants' motions for summary
23 judgment. Plaintiffs' motion is GRANTED. However, because the 24 briefing on the motions for summary judgment is highly redundant, 25 Plaintiffs shall file a single brief in opposition, not to exceed fifty pages in length. This brief must address the specific factual context applicable to each group of Defendants.26 27
28 Defendants shall file a single reply brief not to exceed

1 fifteen pages in length. In addition, each of the three groups of
2 Defendants may, if it wishes, file an additional two-page brief
3 containing non-repetitive argument relevant to its own position.

4 IT IS SO ORDERED.

5
6 Dated: 7/3/08

Claudia Wilken

---

7 CLAUDIA WILKEN
8 United States District Judge